

EDUCATION

Boston University

Sept 2020 – May 2022

Master of Science in Journalism | GPA 4.0

Stanford University

Sept 2014 – June 2018

Bachelor of Arts with Honors in Communication | Minor in Data Science | GPA 3.6

- Activities and Athletics: Varsity Lightweight Rowing (two-time national champion and 2018 CRCA Scholar Athlete), The Stanford Daily (Managing Editor of Sports) and Pi Beta Phi sorority.

AWARDS

Alaska Press Club, Best Sports Reporting 2020

- 1st Place - Yukon Quest champ Brent Sass' legendary leader Silver 'gone but never forgotten'
- 3rd Place - A beacon of hope, Fairbanks baseball shines through adversity

SKILLS

Production: Multimedia writing, video shooting and editing, photography, Adobe Creative Suite

Analytics: R, SQL, Python, Excel, Tableau, R Shiny, Google Analytics

SELECTED WORK EXPERIENCE

Boston University Athletics

Boston, MA

On-Air Talent and Digital Producer

Dec 2020 – Present

- Host, produce and edit This is Terrier Town, a monthly show featuring the department and its athletes.
- Conduct live rinkside interviews with athletes and coaches for men's hockey games, airing on NESN, ESPN+, SportsLive and in-arena on the video board. Also assist with game day social media.
- Conduct live sideline interviews and in-game standups for women's basketball broadcasts, airing on ESPN+.
- Pitch, produce and edit video features for social media, broadcast intermissions and in-arena video board content.
- Stage manager and time out coordinator for men's basketball broadcasts.

AMPLIFIED with Megan Reyes

June 2021 – Dec 2021

Producer and Editor

- Produced and edited all episodes of AMPLIFIED, a sports and mental health podcast hosted by Megan Reyes.
- Executed every step of the production and editing process, including researching and writing questions for guests, editing episodes, clipping compelling moments for social media and uploading episodes to Simplecast.
- Started working on the show in June 2021 as a Production Intern for Blue Wire Podcasts.
- Hired by the host in Oct. 2021 when she left the company and served as the podcast's only producer and editor.

Fairbanks Daily News-Miner

Fairbanks, AK

Sports Reporter

June 2019 – June 2020

- Wrote approximately eight stories a week, including recaps, features and previews.
- Covered Alaskan sports, including World Eskimo Indian Olympics, sled dog racing and snowmobile racing, in addition to local high school sports and NCAA teams at the University of Alaska Fairbanks.
- Shot and edited my own photos using Adobe Photoshop and Lightroom.
- Responsible for sports section layout and compiling the day's most relevant AP stories for print.
- Managed the sports section for two six-week periods while the section editor was out of the office.

Pac-12 Networks

San Francisco, CA

Sports Business Fellow

Oct 2018 – May 2019

- Built dashboards illustrating ROI for on and off-channel advertisements to help make data-driven marketing decisions.
- Built recap decks outlining marketing efforts and results for the 2018-19 basketball and gymnastics seasons.
- Assisted with ticket distribution, on-site partner activations and in-game promotions for corporate partners at the Pac-12 Football Championship Game and Pac-12 Basketball Tournament.
- Shadowed talent and producers on weekends and evenings and learned to clip highlights using Dalet.